

“Jesus Calls Ordinary People” - "Call" Workshop at St. Luke's

Don't miss this life-changing opportunity, Saturday, February 21, from 8:30 am-1:00 pm at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, 205 N. Prospect Ave., in Park Ridge. Jesus calls ordinary people like us to transform and heal a broken world, incorporating his call into our unique lives: family, work, church and world. Yes, Jesus is calling us—not just pastors and church professionals.

Find out how! Seek, discover, confirm and incorporate God's "call" in our lives. Cost: $15, includes workbook, checks payable to St. Luke's. RSVP by Feb. 8. Contact Melinda Hoiland at mhoiland@stlukespr.org or the church office at 847-825-6659.

Jesus is continually calling us to uniquely participate in his mission in the world. This workshop will 1) focus on five “P” words: Jesus’ power, places, plan, purpose, and pressing on in the call to which he is calling us! “Church” in Biblical Greek literally means “called out ones,” ordinary people called out by Jesus to transform the world, 2) discuss spiritual gifts and how the Holy Spirit's power works in each of us for accomplishing our call and being the church, the called out ones, 24/7, and 3) what next? How can we look ahead and use the gifts God has given us to answer God's call in every aspect of our life?
