

Contact: Greg Eklund
847.823.0453
630-253-1610 (cell)
geklund@centerofconcern.org

February 8, 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ESTATE and HOUSING PLANNING SEMINAR February 25 at The Summit of Uptown

(PARK RIDGE, IL) - The Center of Concern will sponsor a free public estate and housing planning seminar for the community hosted by The Summit of Uptown, 10 N. Summit Avenue in Park Ridge, 10:30 a.m. February 25. The Seminar will include local professionals who will answer questions from the attendees on estate and housing planning options.

The panel of local experts will include Joseph Capitani, Attorney with Madden, Jiganti, Moore & Sinars LLP, Robert Paneral, Vice President Wintrust Wealth Management, Jo Ann Flynn, Vice President/Branch Manager at Village Bank and Trust, Amy Sullivan, Accountant with Sullivan and Johnson, Irene Sawka, Executive Director of the Summit of Uptown and Eric Homer, Director of Programs with the Center of Concern.

John McNabola, Executive Director of the Center of Concern said, "Estate and Housing Planning is extremely important, regardless of the size of your estate or home. Effective planning now will help you and your loved ones in the future". Estate planning is the process of anticipating and arranging for the distribution/disposal of an estate, or the net worth of a person at any point in time. Creating a thorough plan allows one to ensure their property and assets will be handled correctly, while reducing taxes, court costs and attorneys' fees and it also provides comfort that loved ones will not be burdened with unnecessary confusion and financial barriers.

For more information, contact the Center of Concern at 847-823-0453 or visit www.centerofconcern.org

Founded in 1978, The Center of Concern, a 501(c)3 not-for-profit, offering senior support services, housing options, homeless prevention programs, and counseling for seniors, the disabled, and those facing crisis, enabling independence and dignity. To schedule an appointment or to learn more about its programs, call The Center of Concern at 847-823-0453 or visit its website at www.centerofconcern.org.

###